

Personal Details

Name: Simon Phillip FREIDIN
Date of Birth: 3rd October, 1955
Current Age: 50
Nationality: Australian
Qualifications: B.B.Sc Honours (First), La Trobe
Grad Dip Comp Sci
Scholarships: Summer Research Scholarship, La Trobe University
University of Melbourne Post-Graduate Scholarship

Curriculum Vitae

1974-1977: Engineering/Science, Monash University.

1978-80: Behavioural Sciences, La Trobe University.
Research Assistant, La Trobe University.

1981: Honours, Behavioural Sciences, La Trobe University.
Research assistant to the Dean of Behavioural Sciences, La Trobe University.
Papers: Report to the La Trobe University Council: Recommendations for improving public access to La Trobe University. 1981.

1983-84: Personal research assistant to the Director, Australian Institute of Family Studies,
Papers: Information collection under the Family Law Act. Australian Institute of Family Studies, 1983.

1985: Computer Systems Officer, Australian Institute of Family Studies, CSO 1.
Solution of complex scientific computing problems, preparation of social science data for analysis by staff researchers.

1985-88: Networks Manager and Computer Systems Administrator, Australian Institute of Family Studies, CSO 2
Published papers: A user friendly batch interface for executing jobs on a remote mainframe networked to a mini via SNA. Proceedings, Sixth Australian Conference of Prime Users, Queensland, 1987.

1988: Graduate Diploma of Computer Science, La Trobe University.

1989: Consultant to Victorian Department of Management and Budget in the establishment of the Centre for International Research on Communication and Information Technologies.. Strategic planning. Resource allocation.

1990-91: Aelous Press, Baltimore, Maryland, USA. Conversion to digital publishing

1992: Contract programming, Australia

1993-1995: Research Fellow, The Carer's Program, Department of Psychiatry, The University of Melbourne. Longitudinal survey. Data administrator. Data management and analysis in SPSS. Sun Unix network specification, installation and administration. The study produced 20 research papers and a book.

1996-1999: Information Officer, Australian Transcultural Mental Health Network (ATMHN), Department of Psychiatry, The University of Melbourne. University LITE. Management and analysis of complex data sources. Analysis of statewide psychiatric register data for the western health region of patients from a NESB. Minor database: webserved library catalogue
Papers: I.H. Minas, Stephen Ziguras, S Klimidis, G. W. Stuart and S.P. Freidin.
Extending the framework : a proposal for a statewide bilingual clinical support and development program

1999-2000: Contract with the Commonwealth Government through Action on Disabilities within Ethnic Communities (ADEC). Improving service access for NESB by webserving a database of documents in non-English languages.
Reports: The Ethnic Disability and Resources Online Database, it's users and effectiveness.